

Confidence

How to tie your head scarf

Here are a few ways to get you started

Raine Silk headscarf can be wore in a number of different ways. Your imagination is the limit. We hope you enjoy the styles below and finding new style of your own.

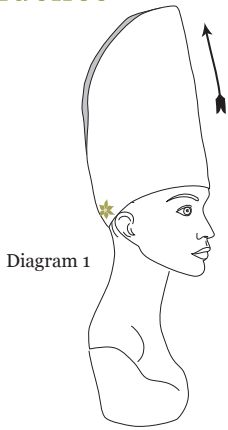

Diagram 1

Place the top circular end of your headscarf over your head, with the join over your back neck (diagram 1). Let the scarf fabric fall to the back as in diagram 2. You can wear as is or create any of the following styles.

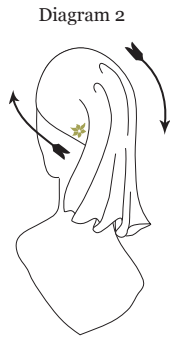

Diagram 2

Diagram 3

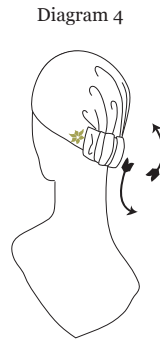

Diagram 4

Diagram 5

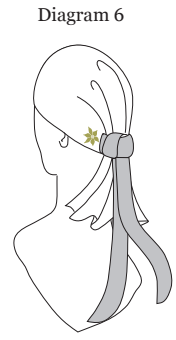

Diagram 6

From diagram 2 you can pull the folds of fabric through the back opening, under the elastic. Holding onto the front, pull fabric folds until desired look is achieved for diagram 3. From diagram 3, you can fold the loose back fabric up and tuck it down into the elastic. Creating the look in diagram 4.

Once you have completed the look for diagram 2, you can tuck the loose back fabric under the elastic. Creating the look in diagram 5.

Once you have completed the look for diagram 2, you can pull fabric back and tie our Lush silk scarf around fabric to create a ponytail effect.

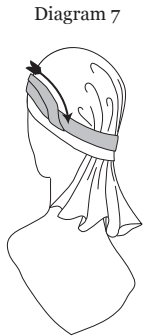

Diagram 7

Diagram 8

Diagram 9

Diagram 11

Diagram 12

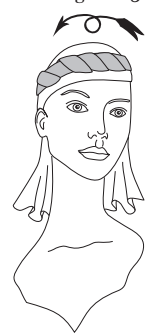

Diagram 13

Once you have completed the look for diagram 3, you can tie our Lush silk scarf around your head and then tuck in the ends.

Once you have completed one of the basic looks above (Diagrams 2 - 5), you can tie our Lush silk scarf around your head and then tie a bow and place it on the side or to the back.

Once you have completed one of the basic looks above (Diagrams 2 - 5), you can tie our Lush silk scarf around your head and then let the fold hang down. You can also pin one of our Headscarf broaches onto your tie and let the beads hang in the folds of the silk tie.

Once you have completed one of the basic looks above (Diagrams 2 - 5), for added head height you can twist and wrap our Lush Long silk scarf twice around your head. Leave the ends loose or tuck them in.

Origin Cotton Jersey headscarf can be wore in a number of different ways. Your imagination is the limit. We hope you enjoy the styles below and finding new style of your own.

Diagram 14

Place the top circular end of your headscarf over your head, with the join and ties over your back neck (diagram 14). Let the scarf fabric fall to the back as in diagram 15. Bring the ties to the front and ties in a knot (diagram 15) or twist (diagram 16) and tuck the ends under the tie. You can wear as is or create any of the following styles.

Diagram 15

Diagram 16

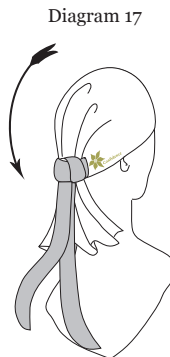

Diagram 17

Once you have completed the look for diagram 14-15, you can pull the fabric back and tie around the fabric to create a ponytail effect.

Diagram 18

From diagram 15 you can pull the folds of fabric through the back opening. Holding onto the front, pull fabric folds until desired look is achieved for diagram 18.

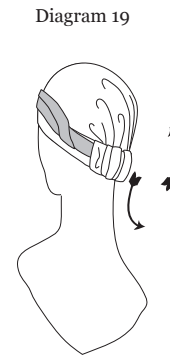

Diagram 19

Once you have completed the look for diagram 18, you can fold the loose back fabric up and tuck it down over the ties. Creating the look in diagram 19.

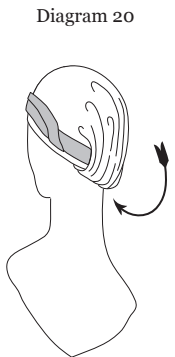

Diagram 20

Form diagram 15, you can tuck the loose back fabric under the back of the head scarf. Creating the look in diagram 20.